

2009 InKAS Summer Camp

InKAS is holding a Summer Camp program for Korean adoptees to experience and learn Korean Culture.

It is our desire to aid in the understanding and experience of the true Korean culture during their visit.

The program is mainly coordinated for overseas Korean adoptees to experience Korean cuisine, custom, culture and language via opportunities of direct participation and experiences.

InKAS Summer Camp is composed of several hands-on programs. There will be Korean cuisine cooking, Taekwondo, and other practical classes in several places in South Korea. After the classes, you will have an opportunity to experience the culture of young Korean people's lives with young Korean adults.
